Home » USA » James Salter » A Sport and a Pastime. James Salter: A Sport and a Pastime. When I started reading this novel, it did not come across as a novel written by a US writer, but more like a French writer. I am not sure whether Salter would have taken that as a compliment or not. Of course, the fact that it is set in France may well ...

Fiction – paperback; Picador; 192 pages; 2007. James Salter is one of those authors I had only ever heard good things about, so when I found A Sport and a Pastime in my local second-hand store (I live a few doors down from Elizabeth's Bookshop in Fremantle), I couldn't resist buying it.. First published in 1967, it tells the story of a love affair between an American college dropout and ...
